Dear Sir,

Probably you will think that I ought not to try to influence the Trustees in this way, - but this letter, ^(enclosed) tells such a story - that I want to do all I can to help Mrs. Chase - she tries so hard to help her self + her little family - (she has just rec'd a diploma as ^{actress} D.D.S. ^{dentist} at The Iowa City Dental College) that one can't help trying to do all one can

Kindly return the letter to me, as I want to show it to our Board of Control next month, & oblige

Dear Sir

Mrs. Chase wrote me, when I first took charge of the picture, that Mr. Chase had (before he was ^{taken} ill) thought the "New York Harbor" should net him $1000.⁰⁰ at least, and I have not been at liberty to offer it for less. If that is not satisfactory, - I can write to Mrs. Chase & ask if she still considers that the very lowest, -

The picture is offered at $1000 - gives further instructions - she wished me to ask $1200.00 more, -

S. H. Kauffmann Esq.-

Chairman Committee on Works of Art-Corcoran Gallery, Washington-

Dear Sir:

In reply to your note of the 10th received this morning, I beg to say that I have written to Herr Josef Kreithmayr, Munich, ordering a cast of the statue of King Arthur, as you requested. This makes the fourth copy I have been authorized to order, and I presume the price will therefore be near 800 Mks than 1000 Mks, - though the packing and shipping will necessarily make quite an item in addition-

As Herr Kreithmayr wrote me March 24 that it was still too cold in Munich to begin work on the mould, it will probably be some time before the cast will be heard from. I have instructed him to send the bill and all other papers directly to the Corcoran Gallery.

Very respectfully yours,

Edward T. Loring

NEW YORK. April 17th 1889.

S. H. Kaufmann Esq.

Dear Sir

It gave me a great deal of pleasure this morning, to wire Mrs. Chase that "New York Harbor" had found a home in the Corcoran Gallery. & Now, too, she can order the surgeons to proceed with the operation knowing that she is prepared to "foot the bills." I have been quite successful in selling small sketches & studies by Mr. Chase, for her - during the past year, so that she has been obliged to make but one call on our "Relief Fund" during the past twelve months, and this sale will prevent the sacrifice of a very nice picture of

- Fishing Snack in Buzzard Bay, - well worth $500. - for which however I have only an offer of $200.

There are now only three more - in any way important pictures by Mr Chase in his wife's possession - but there many sketches & studies (several here in my studio) some of which are very characteristic of him.

Permit me to thank you - the other members of the Committee & the kindly "Herr Curator" - for the friendly manner in which my letters were treated & for Mrs Chase, for the sympathy expressed & your kindness in approving the purchase of the picture.

Yours very truly
John L. Fitch.
